

Abercrombie & Fitch

abercrombie

Abercrombie & Fitch is the most successful specialty retailer in operation today. Our casual, classic, all-American lifestyle brand of clothing is synonymous with quality. Based in Columbus, Ohio, the Abercrombie & Fitch brands have never been more powerful or more profitable.

The A&F culture is one-of-a-kind. We design, merchandise, market-and live-the Abercrombie & Fitch brand. We are our best customer.

A&F's brand-powered momentum is fueled by additional lifestyle reinforcement. Every aspect of our stores-the music, the marketing and photos, and overall aesthetic-has made the in-store experience more potent than ever. Our web site, abercrombie.com, receives more than 1 million hits per month. Through the web site, e-commerce has expanded the A&F experience beyond our stores, and gives customers access to the brand from anywhere at any time.

With the additions of abercrombie, Hollister Co., Ruehl, and most recently Gilly Hicks our brand has never been stronger.

We are again expanding the Import Department's Customs Compliance Team and are looking for a Compliance Analyst; an experienced and motivated employee who will ensure that A&F conforms with all regulations governing international trade. This position reports to the Manager of Trade Compliance.

This Analyst will have responsibility for functions such as:

- Ensuring ANF's compliance with U.S. Customs regulations on imports.
- Provide classification of current and new products.
- Assist in development of automated solutions relating to Customs transactions.
- Work with the compliance and finance teams on reconciliation, audits, CF28/29 and Post Entry Amendments.
- Provide assistance with eligibility for drawback claims.
- Manage Free Trade eligibility

This highly focused position requires a four year degree and up to 5 years experience in the international trade environment. Candidates must have technical expertise in all aspects of compliance including but not limited to: classification, valuation, country of origin, marking, drawback, CF28/29, reconciliation, and export regulations. Excel and Access software will be utilized heavily and you must be proficient. You will be required to communicate objectives internally within A&F and externally with our overseas vendors. Exceptional communication, time management and organizational skills are critical to your success in this role. Prior experience in the apparel industry is preferred. Exposure to European and Asian Import or Export operations and compliance is a plus. Foreign language is a plus.

Your resume should detail relevant experiences, skills, and education that you believe qualify you for this position.

We will consider all candidates and contact those we feel have what is needed to succeed at Abercrombie & Fitch. Please send résumés to Abigail_Mugrage@abercrombie.com
